

POLICE ON TRAIL OF ROBBERS WHO STOLE $2,500 SILK

Truck and Material Quickly Recovered, Gang Is Near Capture.

Detectives of the Leonard street station declared to-day they were close to the capture of the gang that yesterday afternoon stole a two horse truck loaded with silk valued at $2,500. They say they know the identity of the thieves. Truck and silk were recovered within an hour of the robbery.

The driver of the truck, which was owned by Baring Bros. of No. 333 Mercer street, was Charles Pozo, who had stopped at the Old Dominion pier at the foot of Beach street to make a delivery, leaving his truck in the street. He was on the pier but a few minutes, but when he returned the truck had disappeared.

Pozo reported the robbery to the Leonard street police station. Half an hour later the truck, empty, was found at Broom and Willet streets and a short time afterward Detectives De Cantillon, Landers and Keane located the silk in a stable on Ludlow street.

The owner of the stable said two men had left the silk in his charge. They did not mention the value or contents of the packages and said they would return for them before night.

The thieves did not return, however, apparently having learned that their clean-up had not succeeded.

HELD TO GRAND JURY IN SCISSORS KILLING.

Mrs. Walter J. Snyder, who is charged by the police with stabbing her husband to death with a pair of scissors in their apartment at No. 930 St. Nicholas avenue, April 9, was held to the Grand Jury by a Coroner's Jury to-day. Mrs. Snyder repeated her story, to the effect that Snyder had virtually committed suicide by grabbing her hand that held the scissors and forcing her to stab him. Coroner's Physician Otto A. Schultz testified that the wounds inflicted might have been given in this manner. The jury decided the case should go to the Grand Jury, and Coroner Holstein remanded the woman to the Tombs without bail.

Prison for Judge's Son.

A sentence of from five to ten years in State prison was imposed to-day in Newark on Daniel A. Dugan, son of Judge Dugan of Orange, N. J., convicted of running down and killing a boy by his automobile on Christmas Day last.

SWINDLING BAND CAUGHT IN RAID BY POST-OFFICE

Men Who Ran Fictitious Mercantile Concerns Said to Have Gained $60,000.

Postoffice Inspectors to-day made a raid and arrested Edgar A. Whitney, Samuel L. Lederer, Edward Eggenberger and Samuel Kohler, who are said to have organized four fictitious mercantile companies for the purpose of defrauding merchants and manufacturers to the extent of about $60,000.

These men first proceeded to establish offices for concerns called The Amity Consolidated Construction Company. The offices of the Amity Company were at No. 154 Nassau street, the Oakland was at No. 87 Nassau street, H. Wilson was at No. 271 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, and the Consolidated Company was at Grand street and Broadway.

The names of these companies were so close to those of legitimate concerns that merchants to whom Whitney, Lederer, Eggenberger and Kohler sent orders for goods were deceived into thinking that the orders had come from the bona fide houses and the goods were despatched. These men then disposed of these goods to "pocketbook brokers," who sold them to innocent retailers.

From information sent to W. W. Dickson, Chief of the Postoffice Inspectors in New York, Dickson had the four men run down to-day and they were arrested by Detective Harry J. Tore and Postoffice Inspectors McQuillan, Barber and Pollitt. Whitney, Eggenberger, Lederer and Kohler were held by United States Commissioner Shields to-day in $5,000 each and remanded to the Tombs.
